MESSAGE NOTES

Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Christ has been born of God, and everyone who loves the Father loves whoever has been born of Him. By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and obey His commandments. For this is the love of God, that we keep His commandments. And His commandments are not burdensome. — 1 John 5:1 – 3

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- If someone were to stop you in the parking lot on the way out of church and ask you what the sermon was about, what would you say?
- How do you know you're a Christian?
- How would you describe to someone who is not a Christian what it's like to be part of the family of God?
- How would you answer the question: What does God require of me?
- Do God's commands feel burdensome? How?
- Whose responsibility is it to make sure the church feels welcoming?
- Are there people in your life, friends or family members who have strayed away from the family of God? Who are they? How can you pray for them?
