Acts 20:7 – 12

July 30, 2023

Storm Moore, Guest Speaker

Pastor Storm Moore was born in Guyana, South America, but raised in Calgary Alberta Canada. Storm comes to us from the, not as frozen as you think, Great White North. Storm has been in the ministry for over 30 years as a communicator, Next Gen specialist, worship leader and associate pastor. Storm sees the local church ministry as his greatest challenge and lifelong calling.

Storm is husband to Karen Moore of 30 years, and is a father to Mykala and father-in-law to Kyle. He's patiently waiting to become a grandfather. His passions are to spend time with his girls, to see people give their lives to Christ and see them grow in their faith, sports of all kinds especially pickleball, and Sunday naps.

MESSAGE NOTES

When people fall out of the church, who's to blame, and what's our Biblical Response?

1. The condition of the Church

- They regularly met together.
- They remembered Jesus Christ.
- It was a place of enlightenment.

2. The Position of the Person

- Halfway in and halfway out.
- Comfortable with being lukewarm.
- Asleep to the activity of God.

3. Our Biblical Response

- You shouldn't have been sitting there in the 1st place. (Wrong)
- Pay attention to the needs of those around us.
- Go out to those in need; don't give up on them.

The real value of the church is not what happens on the inside, but what value we add to the world on the outside.
